Folk as the standard bearer.

"At the time of Mr. Mack's first visit in this connection Mr. Folk declined to consider the temporary chairmanship on the ground that he was a candidate only for the Governorship of Missouri, and would not seek an honor at the hands of the National Democracy. He held that his first and last duty was to the party which had honored him in his own State. EW YORK, June 21.-A man, alleged to have demanded $10,000 from President Mellen of the New York, New Haven & Hartford rallroad, in return for which he is said "This declaration, the sincerity of which is believed by every Democrat who reads it, in whatever part of the country, has only stimulated the growth of the Folk sentiment.

"Certainly there are astute and veteran Democratz in Washington who have told their close friends to be prepared for such a result. It is known, for instance, that Senator Gorman has quietly informed a few intimates that he expected the nomination to go to a Washington man, and that it looked as if that man would be Folk.
